- IV) Guests:
- V) Citizen's Comments:
Duane- was appreciative of ditch being cleaned, but still would like Johnson grass and entire length of ditch cleared.
- VI) Citizen Board Committee Updates: Tree Committee- discussed beautifying Van Ness Park and would potentially like to put in bottle brush trees and azaleas to the entrance of park. Further discussion is warranted before plan is formalized.
- VII) Message from the Town Manager:
- VIII) Message from the Attorney: Stated that she is reviewing proposed tree ordinance and will make recommendations to the Tree Committee in the coming months.
- IX) Unfinished Business:
- X) New Business:
- A. Kingsley reported that it would cost $3,753 to put in a gate and culvert at Ave I to allow access to move RVs and mobile homes into Robert's Acres- Kingsley said installing a 16 ft. gate and culvert would help if someone wanted to move a mobile home in and out of Robert's Acres. The gate would be placed on the side of the city shop area and then the mobile could be moved through the shop parking lot. Kingsley submitted a proposal from All-Tite Loader.
- B. Molly's Law – Tabled until next month
- C. Sportsman's Cove - Callahan made a motion to charge the Cove for 50 units bringing them into compliance with the current water rates. Kingsley seconded. Motion passed 4-0.

D. Callahan made a motion to adopt Marion County's fees for lien searches. Kinglsey seconded. Motion passed 4-0.
